Description:

This workshop will introduce archivists, curators, librarians and other staff from cultural institutions to the preservation issues of electronic records and related media. Topics will include an overview of electronic record format issues, media preservation and on going migration issues for electronic records.

It is recommended that attendees have a basic understanding of computers.

Linda Reib has worked in computer systems for over 20 years. She received her MA in Information Resources and Library Science from the University of Arizona. Currently Linda is an Electronic Records Archivist for the Arizona State Archives.

The Polly Rosenbaum Building is scheduled to open in mid-2008, for directions to and information about the State Archives visit: <http://www.lib.az.us/archives/>
